VII. Student Representative's Report

Emilee Angell stated that the 50th annual national honor society induction took place. Winter sports have begun, with basketball having their first game yesterday and indoor track having their first meet tomorrow. The drama, a cappella, the band ensemble, and chorus have been rehearsing diligently. There are performances to look forward to this winter, including the MICCA competition, Beauty and the Beast, and the holiday concert, which is on December 20th. Progress reports for Term 2 were just given out to students. The John and Abigail Adams Scholarships were awarded to eligible senior scholars. The following students from the music program were accepted to be members of Central District ensembles: Lauren Girouard for

Central District Band, and she received an All State Recommendation; James Briand for Central District Jazz band, with an All State Recommendation; and Peter Dupuis for the Central District Chorus group.

College acceptances have begun coming in for seniors who applied for Early Action.

The high school hosted a step up day last week to introduce NMS 8th graders to the many programs, sports, and clubs that we have to offer.
